❑ School Opening

- ❑ The Barnegat Township School District opened its doors on September 8. The following items outline some highlights of opening activities, educational themes, building level goals, and new initiatives across our six schools in the district.

School	Activity
LMDS	Students and staff will “Travel the Road to Success: during the 2015/16 school year. They had a fantastic school opening and the students are busy creating their own roadmaps to success to guide them along their academic journey. Research shows that personal goal setting improves student engagement, attendance and participation.
RLHS	RLHS had a fantastic opening with everything running very smoothly. On September 23, they look forward to having guests join them for Back to School Night. Finally, to encourage their students to hit a new collective reading milestone, they will have a kick-off assembly to review the school rules and to generate excitement for this year’s version of the Battle of the Books.
JTDS	JTDS had a successful opening. Teachers greeted their classes outside to ensure arrived in the proper classrooms and that they were all accounted for. Mr. Toddings would like to thank the PTA for placing a welcome table with balloons in the main foyer for the students and for providing some edible treats for the staff in the faculty room as a welcome back.
BHS	The first day of school saw a modified schedule so that all of the teachers could welcome all of their students. Student government representatives were in the halls helping freshmen and new students to their classrooms. In the afternoon teachers turnkeyed Baseline Ed information in small groups to other colleagues. Meetings occurred with each grade to discuss the importance of a good education to future success, the school mission, student role(s) in the process, and encouraging the students to get involved in extracurricular activities. The Vice-principals discussed school policies to ensure compliance. Student representatives spoke about upcoming school events. The band played throughout the hallways as a way to close out the first week and get ready for the first football game. On Monday, Sept. 14, BHS had a guest speaker, Dr. Michael Fowlin who spoke on diversity, equality, self-worth and many other subjects. Students left the assembly with a renewed sense of confidence. On Friday, September 18 th the annual BHS extracurricular activities fair outside the cafeteria will be held. This gives students a chance to find out more information about the school clubs and possibly join them at that time.

ROBMS	It was very exciting to begin a new school year. Overall the opening days went very well and Mr. Fiorentino would like to thank all the staff for their efforts. Mr. Fiorentino received feedback from many parents expressing gratitude for all to the teachers in the halls on the first day of school directing students. Students felt very welcome and at ease on their first day. Parents also were extremely understanding and helpful regarding drop-off and pick-up each day; whereas, it is very congested, particular for the start of the year but it went very smoothly. Peer leadership groups also did a fantastic job as usual assisting students with getting around the school. The overall atmosphere was the best ROBMS has seen in years.

The Barnegat Township School District honored 9-11 on Friday with lessons and ceremonies. Although many activities occurred throughout the district, below are some highlights. BHS	Staff and students wore Red/white/blue. In homeroom, students and staff honored victims of 9/11 with a moment of silence. BHS student representative, John Harashinski will report on BHS events during his address on September 15, 2015 at the Board of Education Meeting. History classes discussed topics related to the event.
